Volume 1, Number 1

Plattsburgh State University College

STRIKE BACK!

By Spencer W. Weisbroth

Plattsburgh-THIS IS NOT THE CARDINAL POINTS. THIS IS THE CARDINAL COUNTER-POINTS. As students disgusted with the self-serving attitude of the "students" newspaper, we have taken it upon ourselves to set the record straight. Many of the writers and producers of this issue were libeled and unjustly criticized in the most recent edition of the Cardinal Points. Since the last issue of the CP was the last issue of the semester, we were unable to respond to this most vile and vicious attack.

Throughout the past semester, the Student Association has attempted to produce high quality services, activities, arts, and entertainment, as well as act as a strong voice for the students of this institution in all concerns. We have lobbied for lower tuition, food costs, and dorm rates; we have fought for a voice for students in the Plattsburgh community by registering and delivering to the polls more students than ever before. Do the students of PSUC know this? I doubt it highly. Why? Because throughout the past semester the Cardinal Points has failed to cover the major stories, preferring to cover stories with little or no interest to anyone.

Why did it take an entire month for accurate results of the national election to be covered and properly reported? Because the CP thought it was more important to report stories of such earth shattering importance as a WPLT Dee Jay quitting. Who really cares? Why wasn't Homecoming covered? Know one really knows—especially the editors of Cardinal Points.

But one can overlook errors of this ilk in light of the fact that Cardinal Points was run by a person who had little experience as a journalist. Thomas Riedy was never an editor on any paper we know of before taking hold of Cardinal Points. And the results of his lack of credentials are painfully obvious. This is not meant to fault Riedy. He really tried to do his job. But, unfortunately, we had to pay the price for his mistakes.

In the final edition of Cardinal Points, the paper attempted to summarize and grade the effectiveness of the Student Association officers. On what basis were these grades made? What was the criteria? Or was it totally arbitrary? Based on the (lack of) information available, it was arbitrary. Furthermore, the evaluations did not fairly assess the accomplishments of the Student Association. What it did was libel at least two members, and provide an outlet to express the personal dislike by the editor of the members of the Executive Council, both past and present. This is not journalism. This is second-rate trash.

The students at this institution deserve, and should ask for—demand for—a better media. The pulp which was produced throughout the semester was not worthy of being called a newspaper. A paper it was. But it was not a newspaper. A newspaper contains news and information. The Cardinal Points contained neither.

We are pleased to present to the students of this school the sole edition of the Cardinal Counter-Points. We have no personal vendetta against the Cardinal Points, or the people who produce it. We do, though, feel an obligation to present an alternative view. In the following pages, the articles represent strong opinions on a myriad of topics, all relevant to unifying topics of the latest edition of CP. Articles on ethics, libel, misinformation and frustration. Also contained are letters and cartoons. So, sit back, relax, and enjoy.

days in the history of this college. As a result of the diligent work of Student Association President Spencer Weisbroth and S.A.S.U. Delegate Gerri Mulken, the 1984 presidential election saw the largest student voter turnout ever on this campus. However, there was no election coverage in the student newspaper.

Instead, the members of the student body were led to believe that three executive council officers abused their powers. The Vice President for Activities was accused of aligning himself with the Vice President for Finances in an effort to overturn the Senate's decision concerning a Student Association event. This was clearly not the case. In an interview with Cardinal Points, the Vice President for Finances made it perfectly clear that the V.P. for Activities was not involved in the agreement that was reached with the

Campus Complaint

What Do You Think?

Direct of Campus Life

Pictured above is a paper published by a student at Plattsburgh State in 1975. It, too, is not the Cardinal Points. It, too, was disgusted with the lack of care and concern the official paper devoted to "news". The newspaper in your hand, the Cardinal Counter-Points, was inspired by its predecessor, pictured above. Although nearly ten years old, "Dirty, Dirty, Dirty" could substitute equally well today.

To quote, "Dirty, dirty, dirty. Plattsburgh students forced to pay for trash. We have found the general attitude of Cardinal Points to be totally negative, and not at all in the interests of the students at PSUC. As students, we demand a school newspaper, not a lying scandal sheet! Not an advertising journal! A service for students! No more favoritism! Proper usage of our money! Cardinal Points—face the facts or remain fiction! WHAT DO YOU THINK!"

Response to S.A. attacks

By Jeffrey E. Nimerofsky

In recent weeks, the Student Association's newspaper has let it be known that effective news coverage is derived from inaccurately reporting news—clearly misstating the facts and providing the students with a false sense of information. Specifically, in the November 8, 1984, issue of Cardinal Points, an editorial was written condemning the actions of three very prominent members of the Student Association government.

It is my honest belief that criticizing the actions of Student Association officials is most definitely an acceptable journalistic practice. However, these attacks on S.A. representatives must be based on facts—not mere speculation, or an editor in chief's personal feelings.

Two days before the November 8, 1984, issue was one of the most successful Direct of Campus Life. For the record, there is documented proof in the October 18, 1984, issue of Cardinal Points regarding the above facts.

Furthermore, in an effort to maintain financial stability, the Vice President for Finances heeded to the Senate's request. A contractual agreement was reached after many long hours of deliberation whereby the S.A. would not continue to fund the concert. This is exactly what the Student Senate wanted. The deal that was worked out by the V.P. for Finances and the Director of Campus Life accomplished two important things. First, it followed the Senate's actions, and second (of equal importance), it saved the Student Association over $1,200.

The members of the Student Association government acted in good faith and honestly and responsibly performed their duties. There is no reason for a few individuals to publicly humiliate student volunteers by deliberate misquotes and personal grudges.

This paper was entirely financed by the tireless efforts of our publisher, Russell Monaco, and Business Manager, Jeffrey Nimerofsky. This publication did not cost the Student Association or its members anything, except hard work. We wish to thank the following for their efforts to make this possible: Don Garrani, Mol Lavery and College Relations Office; Stan Supinski and The College Auxiliary Services; George Laymen and the College Bookstore; Robert Clinton and Morris Greyhound. Any and all profits generated from this venture will be donated to the Cardinal Points in an effort to help offset their enormous debt for the Fall 1984.

This ends "Day in The Life" project, but not the efforts of the photographers. Their work appears throughout this book, and they should be proud of it.

This section could not have been completed without the monumental effort of the Spring 1985 yearbook staff, the members of which spent the weekend processing film, printing photos and laying out pages. Special thanks go to Zina Dickson, Bruce Rudberg, Cathy O'Beirne, Jalene Grossetto, Sandra Dehner, Kevin Neal, Kevin Abbatachio, Robert Bush, Heidi Cohen and the students in Photo I who turned in their film.
